

This is a sample only. Programs may use any portion of this as they wish.

Didactic Faculty Job Description

The lactation program utilizes didactic instructors to assist in providing students with instruction that is in line with the course syllabus, phases of learning, and course competencies.

Responsibilities

- Present factual, evidence-based content to students
- Make necessary updates to existing presentations that reflect changes in literature and practice guidelines
- Engage students and facilitate appropriate discussion in an environment free of derogatory or discriminatory language
- Utilize appropriate and applicable audiovisual and tactile teaching aids
- Conduct her/himself in a professional manner, demonstrating behaviors that are defined by the by the code of ethics/conduct and scope of practice of his/her profession.
- Be aware of the learning goals of the program
- Be willing to engage in a dialogue with the Director of Training prior to class presentations to ensure student and Didactic Faculty needs are met

Any questions or concerns regarding expectations and responsibilities of the instructor should be directed towards the Director of Training.